

SPOTLIGHT YOUR CLUB TEXAS JUNIOR BETA CONVENTION

1. The board and information must use the Convention Theme – The Heart of Beta
2. Each club must use a display board that is the size of a regulation science fair board (3 ft. high x 4 ft. wide). No Header Boards allowed.
3. Everything incorporated with the spotlight board must be attached to the board. No additional material may be displayed on the table, such as brochures, candy, decorations, etc.
4. Any border, trim, etc. should not exceed the regulation size noted above.
5. The display board should be made in a manner so that it can be folded flat.
6. The display should include but not limited to:
 - a. A county or state map pinpointing the location of the school. Photographs of the club, school, sponsors and service projects
 - b. Interesting information about your community
 - c. Information about your school - Number of students; Number of faculty and staff; Grades in school; Name of principal
 - d. Information about the club - Number of club members; age of club; service projects

Judging Criteria

- Theme Interpretation 25 pts.
How unique is the interpretation to the theme?
- Information 25 pts.
Is the majority of the information listed on the display?
- Creativity 25 pts.
How original and/or creative is the information displayed?
- Overall Appeal 25 pts.
How is use of color, picture quality and the organization of information?

If you have already printed your bulletin, then you can write in this competition on the Entry form. The bulletin has been corrected with this competition.