

National Beta Welcomes Homeschool Students!

National Academic Recognition. Compete at State and National Levels.
Scholarship Opportunities. Character Development. Leadership Skills.

Are you looking for national recognition for your homeschool group, co-operative or association? Join National Beta! With as few as five students, your group can charter a National Beta Chapter and gain national academic recognition, scholarship opportunities, and the ability to compete at state and national levels.

There are no charter or affiliation fees to establish a National Beta Chapter. Members pay a one-time fee of $15 per division (Junior Beta - grades 4-9 and Senior Beta - grades 9-12).

Beta members receive:

- Certificate of membership
- Membership card
- Membership lapel pin
- Recognition for achievement in a prestigious national organization
- Opportunity to attend and compete at state and national conventions
- Opportunity to attend the Beta Broyhill Leadership Conference
- Opportunity to attend a National Beta Club Regional Leadership Summit
- Opportunity to apply for college scholarships ranging from $1,000 - $15,000. Over $265,000 is awarded annually to graduating senior members.
